2. The Prl.Chief Conservator of Forests has informed that the Chief Conservator of Forests, Rajahmundry reported that owing to shortage of Forest Range Officers in Zone-II, the on-going works / time bound works under various schemes and protection of valuable Red Sanders, are badly affected. In addition, the Scheduled Tribe and other Forest Dwellers (Recognition of Right) Act has to be implemented as per time bound programme. In the interest of Forest Protection and completion of ongoing works under various schemes, the Chief Conservator of Forests, Rajahmundry has proposed to utilize the services of eligible Dy.Range Officers, by giving them ad hoc promotion to the category of Forest Range Officer against existing Direct Recruit vacancies on administrative grounds. He has also informed that the total sanctioned strength of Forest Range Officers in Zone-II is (39). Out of which, 60% are earmarked for Direct Recruitment which comes to (23). Out of which, only (16) Direct Recruit Forest Range Officers are working as on 1.1.2009, leaving (7) Direct Recruit posts vacant. The (7) vacancies of Forest Range Officers will be filled up after selection having due procedure conducted by the A.P.Public Service Commission and will be available for posting in the regular Ranges after completion of (18) months Ranger's training course and (1) year Fundamental & Practical training, i.e., 30 months.
